The Old Doctors

Drew blood, modern doctors cleanse it; debase the increased demand for Alleviators. It is now well known that most diseases are due, not to over-abundance, but to impurity, of the blood, and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacious as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

One of my children had a large sore break out on the leg. We applied simple remedies for a while, thinking the sore would shortly heal. But it grew worse. We sought medical advice, and were told that an alternative medicine was necessary. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength rapidly returned.

—J. J. Armstrong, Walpole, N. H.

I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be an admirable remedy for the cure of blood diseases. I prescribe it, and it does the work every time. —E. L. Palmer, M. D., Druggist, Augusta, Me.

We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier. —W. T. McKee, Druggist, Augusta, Me.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the only of all preparations. —T. W. Richmond, Bear Lake, Mich.

A WORD WITH THE CITY FATHERS.

(Clarksville Semi-Weekly Tobacco Leaf.)

Oh! City Fathers, a word, a word, And I trust, City Fathers, I may be heard; For these words of mine, they will be few, Because they're addressed to you, to you.

For a word to the wile, I believe 'tis said, Is quite sufficient, I've heard it read, And I believe, and I believe, You'll set out this word because 'tis wise.

Of the R. V. government you've heard, And in Clarksville town I am afraid, For as I went home the other night I lost my religion, lost it quite.

Because I walked at a rapid pace, Stopped my shoe and skinned my face, Chased for a minute And fell from grace.

And all because of a wretched place, On your R. V. pavement I cut trace, The smoke you smoke as you sing, "I've done myself that very thing."

Just the other day a pair of legs, That belonged to a boy and a basket of eggs, Were tramped in air, and sad to relate, In the basket of eggs down the boy lay.

And a grocery clerk with a basket of eggs, Stopped himself up from the dusty street, And he said to me, "You're a fine fellow, Because she had moved and ankle bent, The tobacco-smoked him."

A clergyman, too, so dense and stout, Fetched himself up from the dusty street, And he said to me, "You're a fine fellow, Because she had moved and ankle bent, The tobacco-smoked him."

A clergyman, too, so dense and stout, Fetched himself up from the dusty street, And he said to me, "You're a fine fellow, Because she had moved and ankle bent, The tobacco-smoked him."
